

Register Now to Attend the

2005 IRS Research Conference

The 2005 IRS Research Conference will highlight new research on tax compliance and administration, and will facilitate dialogue among IRS researchers, IRS and state tax administrators, tax experts from other countries, academic researchers and private sector experts.

The 2005 Conference will be held June 7 and 8 at the Hotel Washington, located at 15th and Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC.

This year's conference papers are grouped into six sessions:

- New Estimates of Individual Income Tax Compliance
- Influencing Voluntary Compliance Behavior
- Indirect Measures of Compliance
- Use of Tax Administration Resources
- Taxpayer Burden
- Understanding Barriers to Compliance and Participation

Attendees must register by May 31st. Mail your completed registration form to IRS Research Conference, P.O. Box 2608, Washington, DC, 20013-2608. Each person from your organization planning to attend the conference should complete a copy of the registration form. There is no fee for this conference.

For attendees needing lodging, we have reserved a block of rooms at the Hotel Washington. You must make your reservation by May 7th in order to be assured availability and the government rate ($153 per night, excluding taxes). Make your reservation directly with the Hotel Washington by calling (202) 638-5900 or (800) 424-9540. Please be sure to identify yourself as part of the IRS research conference.

Should you have any questions about the conference topics or sessions, please contact Melissa Kovalick at (202) 874-0603.